

Valentina Stadnic

Ms. Valentina Stadnic, is a member of the board of management for the State Enterprise for Assets (“Pentru Exploatarea Cladirilor”), and an advisor at the Ministry of Information Technology and Communications of the Republic of Moldova.

Her area of expertise is in digital innovation, knowledge sharing, capacity building of institutions and collaboration of stakeholders in the ICT sectors, as well as building partnership with various organizations.

In her roles, she led projects, programs and policy changes including legislative reforms fostering the digital agenda and the development of the ICT ecosystem. Her passion is to help bring new thinking that bridges the gaps between stakeholders, policy and the power of technology in solving development challenges.

Ms. Stadnic has worked in both public and non-governmental organizations in various roles fostering development. She holds a Master degree with an educational background in economics, international relation, and educational trainings in technology challenges, policy development, e-governance, smart cities, public administration, and program and project design. She is fluent in English, Romanian and Russian.